

The Misulonads Memo

September 23, 2022

Our Learning

Reading/Writing - In reading, we worked on theme and summarizing. Students learned the difference between retelling and summarizing. In writing, students are writing about a time they attended a special event. We have finished our thinking maps and are working on our best, first drafts.

Math - In math, we have successfully completed our second math unit on addition, subtraction, and estimating. Students also completed corrections on their tests in class. Please continue to practice math facts at home. We will be starting our unit on multiplication next week.

Science - This week, we continued our work on Natural Processes. Students are building a structure to withstand a natural process they are researching.

Treat of the Week

Each week, we will learn more about our Classroom Family.

Week of 9/26: Sean
Week of 10/3: Elijah
